7. General Information Regarding the Written Examination, Counselling and Admission

- (i) All the eligible candidates, both Regular and Sponsored, will have to appear in a written test to be conducted separately for each Department/ Specialty. It will be of 60 minutes duration and comprise 50 multiple choice questions of single correct response type. The candidates (Regular and sponsored both) will have to score at least 50% in the Written Examination to qualify for the counselling.
- (ii) The merit list will be declared and displayed on the Institute website (www.bhu.ac.in/ims; www.new.bhu.ac.in). Separate Merit lists for each course will be prepared for the regular & sponsored candidates. The candidates will be called for counseling according to the merit list, and will be allotted the sub-speciality/discipline based on their merit-cum-choice. A specialty wise waiting list will also be prepared which shall be valid for one month from the date of commencement of Session.
- (iii) The candidates will be selected for admission strictly based on final merit – cum - choice. In case of equal marks obtained by two or more candidates in the final merit list, the inter-se-ranking of the candidates shall be determined in the following order:
 - a) In case of candidates having equal marks in the written test, the merit shall be decided on the basis of postgraduate (MD/MS/DNB)

Examination aggregate marks. Candidates having higher marks in PG examination will be considered higher in merit.

- b) In case of candidates having equal marks in the merit list and equal marks in MD/MS/DNB Examination, then the merit shall be decided on the basis of marks obtained by the candidates in Final MBBS Examination. Candidates having higher marks in final MBBS examination will be considered higher in merit.
- c) If the percentage marks in the final MBBS Written Examination too happen to be the same for two or more candidates, the date of birth would be the basis for determining the merit i.e. the candidate senior in age would rank higher in merit.
- (iv) No scrutiny/re-evaluation of the answer sheet of the written test shall be allowed on any ground.
- (v) The admission and continuance of fellowship of the candidate shall be subject to the BHU Act, Statutes, Ordinance, Rules and Regulations and orders as may be applicable from time to time.
- (vi) Fellowship Course Fee of Rs. 5000/- in the name of Director, Institute of Medical Sciences, BHU is to be deposited at the time of admission
- (vii) Admission for candidates sponsored by Central/State government organizations, universities or defence services is subject to following conditions.
 - a) Sponsored candidate will not be given any relaxation in method of admission, duration of course, practical training, pattern of Written Examination and payment of prescribed fee, etc., except relaxation in age as per GOI Norms.
 - b) IMS, BHU will not PAY ANY SALARY, stipend or any other emoluments during entire course period to the sponsored candidates.
 - c) Candidate should provide a certificate from sponsoring authority mentioning that the candidate is a permanent employee of sponsoring organization and she/he will be granted leave for pursuing the course for the entire duration of fellowship.
 - d) The sponsored candidate should produce relieving certificate from their parent organization to pursue the fellowship course for the entire duration.
 - e) The sponsored candidate will share the same clinical responsibilities as the regular candidates of the concerned specialty.
- (viii) During the Course Period, private practice by the candidates is not allowed.

8. Terms and Conditions:
